Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 10-11 and 16-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Boyd et al. (1997).

Boyd et al. (1997) disclose ¹⁵N side chain labeled glutamine in recombinant proteins, fibronectin type I and epidermal growth factor like modules of TPA (F1-G). The recombinant proteins are made using ¹⁵N side chain labeled glutamine. The claims are directed to a product, proteins containing glutamine labeled in the side chain. The method of obtaining the product does not distinguish over the art because both processes result in the same product.
